

Paul M. Sasaura, M.D.

Education

Undergraduate

B.S. with honors in Genetics, University of California, Davis, 1988-92

Graduate

M.D. University of California, Los Angeles, 1992-96

Post Graduate Training

Residency University of California, Davis – General Surgery, 1996-98
Shriners Hospital for Children – Pediatric Orthopedic Surgery, 2000
University of California, Davis – Orthopedic Surgery, 1998-2002

Licensure

California, 1997-present

DEA, 1997-present

California Fluoroscopy Supervisor/Operator License, 1997-present

Board Certification

Board certified, American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery, 2007

Professional Organizations / Society Memberships

Fellow, American Academy of Orthopedic Surgery

California Orthopedic Association

Paul R. Limpscomb Orthopedic Society

Hospital Appointments

Mercy San Juan Medical Center

Sutter Roseville Medical Center

University of California, Davis Medical Center

Volunteer Clinical Faculty, UC Davis department of Orthopedics

Research

- “A New Approach to the Treatment of Deep Venous Thrombosis in Trauma Patients Undergoing Orthopedic Surgery”. Case review study. Submitted.
- Intramedullary Nail Fixation vs. Cast Immobilization Treatment for Simple Tibia Fractures, a Prospective Randomized Study.
- “The Differentiation of Type I v. II Collagen with Second Harmonic Generation LASER Analysis”. Basic science research. Submitted.
- Polarization-Modulated Optical Second Harmonic Generation: A New Technique for Imaging Knee Cartilage. Basic science research. Submitted.